Bradford West Gwillimbury Mayor Doug White, left, has UFC fighter John "The Bull" Makedessi on the ropes, during Saturday's fundraiser for Soldier On - but the advantage was only temporary.

It's not every 9 year old kid who starts his own business - with a business plan,
bank account,
and accountant
to do the taxes.

It's certainly not the average 9 year old who gives back most of his earnings, to host a special fundraiser, honouring Canada's Armed Forces and raising money for Soldier On.

Nine year old Kyle Ratusny, with the help and support of mom Sarah Salisbury and dad Robert Ratusny, started a yard cleaning business, Pooch Hunters - but also dedicated most of his earnings to hosting a fundraising dinner on September 5 at the Legion, and officially launched his business in front of Canadian Tire on Sept. 6, with an all-day fundraiser for the Soldier

On Foundation.

Soldier On provides financial support for members of the Armed Forces, serving or retired, who have suffered injury or illness. Funds are provided for training, rehabilitation, sports equipment, and competition, to help soldiers return to an active lifestyle in the wake of often catastrophic injury.
The dinner honoured more than a dozen serving soldiers, who attended from Base Borden, but also the memory of Sapper Brian Collier, who gave his life serving in Afghanistan, to Police arrest 2 for Thefts from Autos

South Simcoe Police have made 2 arrests in the recent rash of Thefts from automobiles in Bradford West Gwillimbury.

On Sunday, September 7 around 1:30 a.m., an alert citizen notified police, after observing a group of suspicious youths in a residential subdivision.
Several uniform patrol officers responded, and located 2 teens, ages 15 and 18, found to be in possession of several items stolen from vehicles earlier in the evening.

The teens are facing several charges, including Theft Under $5000 and Possession of Stolen Property. They were released on a Promise to Appear and Undertaking, and will appear in Barrie Youth Court in October.
Additional charges are pending.

South Simcoe Police received 14 complaints during the month of September, and 35 complaints in August, of thefts from cars parked on residential streets. In most cases, police say, the cars had been left unlocked.

Despite the arrests, South Simcoe Police still hold a Crime Prevention seminar, in partnership with the Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury on September 9 at the BWG Library's Zima Room. The hour-long session included information on how to secure homes and vehicles to safeguard against theft, and how to make neighbourhoods more secure through CPTED (Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design).
Police note that most thefts from vehicles are "crimes of opportunity," and therefore preventable.

BWG E-Waste Collection Days

Once again, The Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury will be hosting an Electronic Waste Collection - not only to give residents the opportunity to dispose of old electronics safely, and ensure the materials are recycled instead of being dumped in a landfill, but to raise money for local charities.

Recycling bins will be located at the Bradford Community Centre, September 12 to 14. Residents can drop off any electronic waste, including desktop and laptop computers, monitors, television sets, peripherals (cables, keyboards, mice), audio equipment, vacuum cleaners, toasters, cell phones, etc. The e-waste will be recycled by a member of the Ontario Stewardship Network - and the money paid by the recycler will go to the Bradford Community Meal and the Helping Hand Food Bank.

Drop off e-waste from noon to 7 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 12, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 13 and 14. Volunteers will be on hand to help transfer items from your trunk, to the bins.

Wanted: Volunteers! This is a perfect opportunity for students to earn Community Hours. Please contact Councillor Carl Hordyk, at chordyk@rogers.com or 705-715-6024.

Updating the DC By-law

The Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury has updated its Town-wide Development Charge By-law - but not before making an "adjustment" that knocked $304 off the proposed increase.

The Town-wide DC is levied on all new construction in Town, to cover growth-related costs of Fleet, Road-related expenses, Administration, Library, Indoor and Outdoor Recreation, Fire Protection, and Policing, Parking and Transit.

What can be charged is based not only on projected expenditures to meet the needs of growth, but also on the 10 year average historical levels of service - and that's where the error was made, said Nancy Neale, Senior Project Co-ordinator with Watson & Associates.

How much can be levied is "capped" by historic service levels; an accounting error resulted in a levy that would have exceeded the cap, in at least two areas.

The adjustment has now cut $11 from the proposed levy for Police Services, and $293 for Indoor/Outdoor recreation, for a single family residential; and 2 cents per sq. foot for non-residential development.

It was the development community that pointed out that the proposed DCs included charges beyond the current "planning horizon."

With the adjustment, the town-wide

DC for a Single family detached home drops from $9,572, to $9,268 - still up substantially from the current $6,214 per unit.

The charge for non-residential will drop from $1.12 per sq. ft. to $1.10 per sq. ft. - down from the existing $1.28 per sq. ft.

Asked how the DCs compare to those of neighbouring municipalities, Neale said, "This is a moving target at this date" - with a number of municipalities in the process of updating their Development Charges by-laws. Overall, the Town is comparable to its neighbours, she said.

Deputy Mayor Rob Keffer was upset that the Town has plans to spend $37 million on new Recreation facilities, but the changes to the By-law will only allow $20 million of that to come from Development Charges.

Neale agreed, pointing out that "the Act only allows us to look 10 years into the future," at least $16 million of those projects fall outside of the 10-year time frame.

She reminded Council that the rate of growth will impact the timing of projects. If growth picks up "you may have to build sooner," if growth slows, "you may have to push it back."

One unresolved issue is Transit. The Town of BWG just introduced Transit this year - but can't levy any Development Charges for the service, because the historic 10-year expenditure on transit was $0. "It is an issue that the province is aware of," said Neale - but a provincial review of the DC Act has yet to lead to changes.

Holland St. Repaving

Downtown Holland St. will be closed for repaving, September 14 and 15, from 8 p.m. to 6 a.m. Motorists will need to detour.

IPM 2014!

The 2014 International Ploving Match and Rural Expo comes to Essex Township, September 16-20, at the farm of Barry and Ivan Deane. Here are the IPM's Tent City will be set up.

Organizers expect over 100,000 people to attend, over the 5 days of the Match, that will include ploving competitions featuring competitive and modern plows in action, as well as more than 40 horse-drawn teams.

The Queen of the Furrow will be crowned, after demonstrating her skill on a tractor, and local politicians will also be challenged to plow a straight furrow.

There will be hundreds of agriculture-related displays and exhibits, a dog show, and the Dodge Rods.

It's fun, it's traditional, but it's also educational, giving visitors from the city a chance to learn more about Simcoe County and life on the farm, says IPM Education Chair Anne Arksley.

There will be a focus on heritage and tradition. Organizers are hoping to have a teepee from Rama First Nations and Scott Carpenter from the Metis artists, talking about the role of the Metis Nation in Simcoe County history.

The Simcoe County Museum is bringing its War of 1812 Bicentennial display - one of 15 museums working together to provide information on the history of the County.

Learn more about horses, at Equinima, watch demonstrations of sheep shearing and goat milking, and try your hand at milking "Moonika" the Cow. There will be displays by Libraries, Treas Ontario, Nottawasaga Valley Conservation Authority, Scouts and 4-H, "The Barn Raising Project" - 40 original hooked rugs on the theme "Rural Barns Across Canada" - quilts, crafts, local food and more.

And something unique: A plow-shaped labyrinth, at Tented City. The incredible masterwork was designed and created by Bradford West Gwillimbury artist Dennis Bolohan, best known for his maize-like carvings on stone.

It was Bolohan who approached the IPM with the offer to create the labyrinth, and it took 2 years to design and plant. Four crops were used to create the maize - soybeans,

Winners at the Lions Car Draw

It takes an army of volunteers to hold the annual Bradford Lions Mammoth Draw - to set up the tables and chairs on the floor of the old arena, chop the carrots and slice the meat beef, staff the bar, conduct the elimination-style draw, and finally, clean up at the Bradford Community Centre in the wee hours, after everyone else has gone home.

It's not only Lions who are part of the army. Church women, Guides and Scouts, and high school volunteers lend a hand, as well as Lions from clubs in Bond Head, Beeton, and even Sudbury.

"These are guys that their holidays to do this," said Lion Debbie Jeske.

This year's Draw offered $106,526.80 in prizes, in both cash and vehicles - including 3 Early Bird prizes of $1000 each, and the top prizes of a 2014 Chevrolet Cruze, and a 2014 Chevy Silverado pick-up truck. All 1700 tickets were sold out by 2:37 p.m. on September 6, just hours before the event - and the Community Centre was packed for an evening of entertainment by the Legends of Rock and Roll, from Rod Stewart to Tina Turner, Tom Jones, and ABBA.

In the elimination-style draw, tickets were pulled from the drum, with the 1st, 100th, 200th, 300th, etc. tickets winning $500, and the last 10 tickets winning prizes that ranged from $1,000 to the Silverado.

The winners, heard everywhere that evening: "Are you still in?"

Winner of the Chev Cruze valued at $24,346 was "Evans and Bak." A delighted Robin Evans noted, "I haven't missed a car draw since I was 15" - but this was his first win.

The Silverado, valued at $59,681, was won by Sadlon Motors' Doug Emmerson, a mechanic with the company since 1987 - who was overwhelmed. Paul Sadlon Motors purchased a total of 30 car draw tickets this year; Paul Sadlon Jr. and Jan Sadlon presented the prize.

Letters to the editor

Jellystone Park makes memories happen for residents

To the editor: On behalf of the residents at Bradford Valley Long Term Care home, I would like to take the opportunity to thank Melissa Mendrek and Yogi Bear's Jellystone Park for their outstanding customer service and for being so welcoming.

Recently, our recreation department decided that an overnight trip was something they wanted to try. An overnight outing is something that is relatively rare in Long term Care, but the Recreation Therapy Assistants were ready for the challenge. After reaching out to Ms. Mendrek, campsites were arranged and the trip was booked.

Yogi even made a special trip to visit our residents, and the trip went off without a hitch. Needless to say, it was a HUGE success, and we could not have had such a successful trip without the help of Jellystone and Ms. Mendrek.

It was so successful, we have booked 2 other trips this summer, and it has also given us experience to take our residents to downtown Toronto for the weekend.

On behalf of the residents and staff at Bradford Valley, Thank You for helping to make the lives of our residents that much more fun by opening your Park to us.

Sadie Friessner, R/TRO, Recreation Therapist

Here's Beeton's Mr. A!

by Helen Yieling

Bees, apples and butter tarts all have a relationship to the little town of Beeton - and especially to one of its famous citizens. Beeton was the home town of Kate Aitken, cookbook writer, radio host, world traveller, developer of the Women's Programs at the CNE, and more, during the 1930s, '40s and '50s. Her butter tart recipe is still a favourite with home bakers!

Ron Pegg, author of a new book, "Here's Mr. A," spoke of her life and achievements at the May meeting of the Tecumseh & West Gwillimbury Historical Society.

Ron told of Kate's early life growing up as Kate Scott, daughter of the proprietor of Scott's General Store in Beeton; her marriage to Henry Aitken; their apple and poultry farm where Kate began an entrepreneurial career in food processing, that led to her role as a popular voice for women, both rural and urban, throughout Canada, via public speaking, television, travel and business. Pegg lauded her early liberation as an individual, her achievements in many fields, and her popularity, as evidenced by the 325,000 letters a year she received from her many devotees. Aitken died in 1971, leaving 2 daughters and 8 grandchildren, and a fascinating legacy.

Note: The Beeton Fair, Sept. 12-14, has 2 themes this year - The Plow, and Kate Aitken! Ron Pegg will be there, providing information on Mrs. A.

The Tecumseh & West Gwillimbury Historical Society resumes meeting on Monday, Sept. 15, at the Tec-We-Gwill Women's Institute Hall in Newton Robinson, 7:30 p.m. Louis Theriault, talented carver, will delight viewers with his models, made of wood and leather, of the machinery, buildings, people and animals of pioneer life.

School Crossing Guards

As the school year commences, students are reminded to kindly consider and respect the wishes of our Crossing Guards.

Our School Crossing Guards work diligently to ensure our children cross streets safely as they travel to and from school.

From September to June, our Crossing Guards are stationed at the following intersections in Bradford West Gwillimbury near elementary schools:

Crossing Locations	Times
BARRIE STREET AND BRITANNIA AVENUE	MORNING AFTERNOON
SIMCOE ROAD AND CATARNA AVENUE	MORNING AFTERNOON
HOLLAND STREET WEST AND CHURCH STREET	MORNING AFTERNOON
PROFESSOR JAY DRIVE AND NORTGATE DRIVE	MORNING AFTERNOON
NORTGATE DRIVE AND FLETCHER STREET	MORNING AFTERNOON
PROFESSOR JAY DRIVE AT LONGVIEW WALKWAY (SOUTH OF BREEZE DRIVE)	MORNING AFTERNOON

As a driver, if you are in an area where there is a Crossing Guard, please take caution and observe the traffic signs. Under the Highway Traffic Act of Ontario, the stop sign carried by a Crossing Guard has the same legal authority as a stop sign carried by an intersection.

As a parent, please make sure to remind your children to pay attention to their Crossing Guard and obey their directions.

And finally, as that important student, show your crossing guard respect by adhering to their signs and directions. They are there to assist you and your friends to arrive at school safely. One small word of thanks, shows that you appreciate their efforts and starts the day off on a positive manner.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury Crossing Guard Program, please do not hesitate to contact Jim

Kyle's fundraiser for SoldierOn

Bradford Base Commander Col. Card Donivan thanked Kyle for his support, and thanked the Collier family, who attended the event. "Brian believed in what he was doing, and the values that we all share - liberty, democracy, human rights, the rule of law," Col. Doyn said.

"Tonight is a very, very important event for us. On behalf of all Base Borden, thank you very much," added Base Borden Chief Warrant Officer, Terry Hill.

Also at the head table were Mayor Doug White, and MP for York Simcoe Peter Van Loan. Van Loan noted that "Canada's always been there to defend those values" - freedom, democracy, human rights, rule of law - and continues to do so, despite new terror threats, and instability in eastern Europe.

"Standing up, doing the right thing at the right time - that is soldiering on."

Carol Collier thanked Kyle for organizing an event "everything you've done today is going to change a life." On Saturday, the fundraiser for Soldier On featured bouncy castles and an inflatable obstacle course, jousting, demonstrations of martial arts by veteran Ilan Rosenberg, BMX bike demos by the Free Style Connection BMX team up from California, a display of classic Harley Davidson motorcycles - and the UFC fighter team of John "The Bull" Makkessi, in from Montreal to take on all comers with oversized gloves in an inflatable ring, for a $10 donation to the cause.

Robert Ratusny, Criminal Lawyer and Kyle's dad, who sponsored both events, explained the connection with UFC, and its Fear the Fighter campaign: "The spirit of 'Fear the Fighter' is that we all have fight within us - and that's the premise of Soldier On," Ratusny said. "We all fight, whether it be in the military, or our own tribulations."

The turnout on Saturday was a disappointment, he acknowledged, but there were still lessons to be learned, and fun to be had.

Notes: Due to the strong winds on Saturday, which tipped over tents and blew items off tables, the Silent Auction was cancelled.

The auction will continue online at www.facebook.com/groups/300719260101115 to give supporters time to bid. There will also be a Draw for the Kids' electric car.

From TNT to Carleton: Justin Howell

Twenty year old Justin Howell is pursuing his dream. As a kid, he played football with the Town of New Tecumseth's TNT Football league - and when he attended Vanier College in Montreal, he continued to play varsity football. The speedy 6' tall, 205 lb. Cornerback helped the Vanier Cheertahs win the Bol d'Or during his rookie season - but sat out 2013, due to a dislocated wrist.

This year, he has recovered - and has been picked up by Carleton University in Ottawa, where he is enrolled in a BA Honours program in Psychology, as a Defensive Back with the Carleton Ravens.

Howell opted to attend Carleton and pursue a football career in Canada rather than in the U.S., despite a lucrative offer from a New Mexico college - because, as mom Joanne Howell notes, "His education is #1."

His plans include attending University for at least 3 years, before looking at other options.

Howell moved to Bradford at the age of 9, and has called the Town home ever since. Anyone wishing to follow his career with the Carleton Ravens can visit goravens.ca - or watch the games online, at OUA.tv The Ravens opened their season vs. the Waterloo Warriors on September 8 - and played to 33-14 win.

Pachi the Porcupine, the official Mascot of the 2015 Toronto Pan American and ParaPan Am Games (photo) has been building awareness that the Town of Innisfil is hosting the Games' target shooting events, at the Toronto International Trap and Skeet Club shooting range.

Bradford West Gwillimbury has now been invited to participate in the 2015 Pan Am Games Torch Relay, by hosting a "Celebration Stop". The Town's Leisure Services department has agreed to organize a celebration of sport, culture and heritage to welcome the Relay as it passes through the community, on a yet-to-be-determined date - anticipated to be in "late June 2015." BWG Council approved a $5000 expenditure for the event.

The 2015 Pan Am Games will take place from July 10 to 26 next year; the Para PanAm Games from Aug. 7 to 15.

Swim for Success

The Town of Bradford West Gwillimbury is accepting registrations for the Swim for Success Aquatic Leadership Program at the Leisure Centre.

This program offers high school students an opportunity to receive aquatic qualifications while achieving two academic credits, 10P20A and PP230.

The aquatic qualifications eligible include Bronze Medallion, Emergency First Aid, Bronze Cross, Standard First Aid, National Lifeguard and AED.

The program is offered by the Simcoe Muskoka Catholic District School Board but is open to any Ontario High School Student. The cost is $424.81 per participant, which includes manuals and HST.

The program will operate from September 2014 to January 2015, and space is limited. Students should discuss the option with their Principal, then register with BWG Leisure Services. For more information contact Teressa Taylor, Aquatics Supervisor, at 905-775-7529 ext. 8401 or ttaylor@townofbwg.com

Splash pads closing for the season

BWG - After a very successful summer, the splash pads at Bradford Lions Park and Alan Kuzmich Memorial Park are closing for the season, on September 21. The mechanical systems, including the underground piping, will be drained and winterized - and ready to reopen in June 2015.

The splash pads provided a great place for children to play and stay cool, bringing families together to enjoy the outdoors and meet their neighbours. For more information contact Mike O'Hare, 905-775-5359 ext. 5201.

Photos and story by Miriam King, Bradford Times

Bond Head's concert in the park

The Bond Head Festival 175 Committee was struck to organize the celebration of Bond Head's 175th Anniversary, back in 2012 - but they did much more, hosting events that helped to bring the Bond Head community together.

The Committee organized community picnics in Bud Brown Memorial Park, walking tours of the historic hamlet, dedicated a new park bench and tree - and on Sunday, September 7, held an old-fashioned concert in the Park.

Nearly two dozen local musicians, from fiddlers to country singers, donated their time and talent for the outdoor event - playing everything from Neil Diamond tunes, to old-time fiddle break-downs. And while they played, visitors enjoyed the Bond Head & District Lions Club's BBQ, Art in the Park with local artists Ingrid Schlenke and Maureen Joyce, and a Classic Car Show.

There was also an opportunity to meet local authors Ron Pegg, author of the new "Here's Mrs. A" - all about local celebrity Kate Alken - and David Turner, who wrote "In Search of Yesterday."

In Search of Yesterday is a personal family history, based on family stories that date back to the late 1800s. "My dad was a storyteller," Turner says; the book was an opportunity to capture those stories, and the essence of life in the area, long ago.

The Concert in the Park was free, but donations to Maribee House Hospice were welcomed, to help support the day programs, counselling, respite care and residential services offered by the Alliston-based Hospice, services which are available to residents of Bradford West Gwillimbury.

The Concert was also the final event to be organized by the committee, of Lynda Usher, Barry Jaynes, Pat Cranston, Bev Ferguson, Mikki Nanowski and Jim Cerswell. They'll be hanging up their bonnets, aprons and suspenders, having accomplished what they set out to do.

Blue Bridge Festival Choir needs singers

The Blue Bridge Festival Choir - a vibrant, community choral ensemble - is looking for new members. The Choir, which rehearses on Tuesday nights at Dr. Denison Secondary School, 135 Bristol Rd. in Newmarket, from 7 to 9:15 p.m., has openings in all sections for enthusiastic musicians who love to sing, and are willing to work together to achieve eclectic musical goals. The ensemble performs a variety of concerts over the season, which includes performances of works with instrumentalists and orchestra.

Previous choral experience and music reading are definite assets, but choir and conductor are both willing to work with motivated but less experienced singers, to improve their musical skills.

The Choir was originally founded and conducted by Catherine Maguire. Renowned Canadian maestro, William Shookhoff has been a frequent guest conductor with the Blue Bridge Festival Choir.

Starting this season, new director will be Trevor Dearham, head of music at Dr. Denison Secondary.

Interested? New singers are invited to an Open House rehearsal on Tuesday, September 16, at 7 p.m. in the Music Room at Dr. Denison Secondary School. For more information, contact Sheila Cording, 288-786-0130 or email bluebridgemembers@gmail.com

At the Bradford Farmers' Market

June Brewster, with the traditional smoked and cured meats, fresh bread and cheeses, available at European Meat, at the Bradford Farmers' Market.

Every week more fresh produce is available at the Bradford Farmers' Market, Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the parking lot beside the Bradford Public Library, 425 Holland St. W. Look for bulb onions, leeks, green onions, chard, red and gold beets, carrots, cauliflower, broccoli, Kale, new potatoes, sweet corn, squash, pumpkins and fresh tender fruits - as well as honey, artisanal flour, fresh eggs and dairy, the sauces and dips of Everything Maple & More, hand-made soaps, and crafts.

Those looking for traditional meats and meat products will be happy to discover the booth of European Meat. Established in 1972, the local company specializes in dried, smoked and cured meats - pepper salami, summer sausage, pepperoni, pepperettes and much more - as well as fresh kolbassa, cheeses, and traditional Italian crusty breads.

And although the selection at the Market looks huge, "We have so many things more in the store," says June Brewster. "It's overwhelming!" The store is the 27 Country Market, located at 4381 County Rd. 27 just south of Cookstown, owned by Joe and Josie De Maria. European Meat products are available there, at local farmers' markets, and at shows like Canada Blooms and the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair.

Brewster, who has worked for the company for 19 years, is enthusiastic about the quality and the variety - and always happy to share advice and information about the products. For more information, call 705-458-1823, or drop by the 27 Country Market.

Participants, volunteers and supporters, in the inaugural 5K Family Walk or Run for Crime Stoppers of Simcoe Dufferin Muskoka, organized by the South Simcoe Police Wellness Committee, and held in Bradford on Saturday, September 6.

South Simcoe Police run for Crime Stoppers!

The inaugural South Simcoe Police 5K Run/Walk/Jog for Crime Stoppers took place Sept. 6, starting and finishing at the South Division Police Station on Melbourne Drive, in Bradford.

About 30 officers, staff and family members - plus a number of kids - signed up for the event, and raised over $800 for Crime Stoppers of Simcoe Dufferin Muskoka.

"This is our 1st annual Run," said Chair of the South Simcoe Police Wellness Committee, Debbie Smith. "We didn't really have a fundraising goal" - but the money raised surpassed all expectations, she said.

Crime Stoppers is a civilian, non-profit, volunteer-run organization that brings together Police services, media and the community to fight crime - allowing ordinary citizens to report crimes or criminal activity without fear of reprisal or retaliation, by calling the anonymous tip line. Callers do not have to identify themselves or testify in court, and information leading to an arrest, or the recovery of illicit drugs or stolen property, may be eligible for a cash reward.

Since 1987, Crime Stoppers has received 59,373 calls - leading to 4,000 arrests, 6,150 cases cleared, $1.1 million in stolen property recovered, and $57 million in drugs seized. For more information, see www.crimestoppersdm.com; tips can be called in to 1-800-222-TIPS.

Peter Eddy has been a Crime Stoppers volunteer for 8 years. "I saw a piece in the paper that said, 'Can you help your community? So I joined,'" he said. Eddy, Civilian Coordinator for the Barrie Police C.O.P.S. (Citizens on Patrol) program, now also sits on the Board of Directors for Crime Stoppers of Simcoe Dufferin Muskoka. "It's just very gratifying to give back to your community. I love being involved - with the Police and the Crime Stoppers organization."

Runners and walkers were treated to a free BBQ, courtesy of Sobeyes in Alcona, and ice cream, from Marble Slab in Barrie.

Inset: South Simcoe Police Chief Rick Beazley, and Sgt. Sean Willan, Sgt. Wilian, a member of the SPS Tactical Unit, chose to run in full gear - weighing 415 lbs.

Terry Fox Run this Sunday

The Terry Fox Run for Cancer Research returns to Bradford on Sunday, September 14 - raising money for the Terry Fox Foundation and innovative cancer research. To date, the Foundation has raised over $650 million - with 84 cents of every dollar going toward research.

In 2013-14, the Foundation plans to invest $23.5 million in "Discovery Research" - fundamental biomedical research into a cure, "Translational Research" to bring lab discoveries to clinical trial; and training, for future leaders in research.

The Terry Fox Run takes place in more than 9,000 communities each year, around the world. There is no entry fee, no minimum pledge, no prize for being "first", no sponsorship - just a request for participation, and donations, to keep moving forward in the fight against cancer, and to remember Terry Fox and his 1980 Marathon of Hope.

In Bradford, the run will take place at the BWG Leisure Centre, with registration at 9 a.m., and the start of the 2.5K, 5K and 10K Run or Walk at 10 a.m. The route is open again wheelchair, rollerblade and bicycle accessible. The event will be followed by a BBQ and the runners' activities.

And this year, participants will be joined by its "official mascot" Jimmy the Clydesdale, from Dreamwinds Equine Assisted Learning Centre in Bradford, will be on hand to kick off the festivities. Jimmy was diagnosed with Equine Sarcoid - a form of skin cancer that afflicts horses - and has not only battled the disease, but served as "Spokes-horse" at Dreamwinds' own fundraising events for cancer. For more information, contact organizer Elsie Silva Kniff, at elsie_greg@yahoo.com or 905-251-3214 - or see terryfox.org. Runs are also planned in Barrie, and Newmarket.

Charity Golf for Eat Well to Excel

Eat Well to Excel 2nd annual Golf Tourney takes place Sunday, Sept. 21 at Innisbrook Golf Course. Cost is only $100 for 18 holes of Golf and Cart, Dinner, prizes and Silent Auction. Shotgun start at 2 p.m. To register, and raise money for Breakfast programs in South Simcoe schools, contact Karen Martin at 705-730-1891. To pay by credit card, contact Innisbrook GC at 705-721-9210.

Smile Cookies return to Tim Hortons!

From September 15 to 21, customers at Tim Hortons restaurants in Bradford will be able to purchase a Smile Cookie for $1 - and know that all the proceeds will be going to Big Brothers Big Sisters of York. Franchise owners Jack and Perry Thornton hope to raise $10,000 this year - beating last year's $8,700 - at their 4 locations. From left, BBBSY President Sarah Dame, Kate Collins, Program Manager Shane Joseph, Councillor Peter Dykile Jr., Jack Thornton, Go Girls co-ordinator Davinder Hallan, Perry Thornton, and Mayor Doug White - with cookies!

Heroes in the Sky

Look up. Waasay up. Bradford Volunteer Firefighters are going to new heights to promote the 2015 Volunteer Firefighter Calendar - a fundraiser for a number of charitable and non-profit organizations.

The launch of the new calendar will take place September 13 and 14, at the Canadian Tire Store in Bradford, 430 Holland St. W., starting at noon on Saturday. That's when a group of Firefighters will be hoisted atop the roof at Canadian Tire - and there they will stay, until 6 p.m. on Sunday.

It's being called "Heroes in the Sky" - and while the firefighters remain on the roof, on Saturday, the parking lot will be the scene of inflatable bouncy castles for the kids, entertainment and fire safety education. Sales of the $20 calendars will continue Sunday.

Restoration Garage rolls out another season

The Guild of Automotive Restorers in Bradford has an international, not to say global, reputation as a high-quality restoration garage that works with its customers to bring their automotive dreams to life.

So owner David Grainger has been impressed by promises of "fame and fortune" from the various producers that have approached him over the years, with ideas for shows.

"I get approached between 3 and 6 times a year by production companies to do something, and it's usually pretty hair-brained," Grainger says.

Piscom Production's proposal was different.

"When the producers called, what they had was a one-hour time slot (on History Television Channel) they wanted filled" - and a concept that was

"unworkable...unrealistic." Grainger told the producer so, but instead of shrugging and hanging up, she wanted to know why it wouldn't work. "We spent another hour and a half working out what would work" - and the result was last season's hit, Restoration Garage.

"It was something I was happy with - a reality-based TV show with real projects, real people," Grainger says.

The filming, at The Guild in Bradford, had its challenges and there was plenty of drama, but no-one deliberately played to the cameras. "The guys were too busy," Grainger says, and for the most part, the camera crew was fairly unobtrusive - except when they wanted an "on the fly" comment on a situation or a project, and held things up to get their quotes.

Restoration Garage returned for a second 8-part season on Monday, September 8 at 9 p.m. on History TV. The format has changed; this year, every episode is a stand-alone show. "It threw some deadlines at us," admits Grainger, but he says, "I'm actually much happier with this season."

The cameras not only follow the action in the garage, but David's trips abroad - including his trip to Italy, looking for parts for a 1942 Alfa Romeo, undergoing a multi-million dollar restoration.

The highlight of this season and the grand finale is the restoration of the Alfa, for the Concours d'Elegance show in Pebble Beach, California. The Concours is described as "the most intense car collector competition in the world" - a gathering of the world's rarest, most expensive and most beautiful vehicles.

There was plenty of drama and tension at the garage, but most of the drama happened off-screen, while transporting the roadster from Canada to Pebble Beach. A run-in with the California Highway Patrol, a metric mix-up that nearly ended in a hefty fine and, says Grainger, "We rolled it off the trailer at 5 a.m., the owner's coming at 5:30 a.m., and it won't go into last gear."

Everything did work out in the end, although the judges were unhappy with the 1946 end, says Grainger, "It's a bit series around the world. It just premiered in South Africa last week." At Pebble Beach, he and his team were recognized by visitors from Australia and England - but not by Americans. "It had shown in the U.S. yet" an omission that will be repaired this fall.

While the show loves to focus on The Guild's flips as much as its successes - "They love it when we lose," Grainger says, like the vehicle purchased at Auction for a premium price, that ended up as a loss - the reality is that most of their buying takes place away from the auction houses, and much of their work is done for clients for whom the cars are "hobbies, avocations, passions and girlfriends. They're the mistress the guy can get away with."

And, he says, it helps to know the market. Like the Delahayes purchased for about 200,000 Euros, and restored for about $200,000. "The car was worth about 8 or 900,000 Euros, finished. Now that car is worth 2 million, or more... You have to hide your time."

The big deals don't happen every day. "It may happen 3, 4 times a year", but when it does, the cameras could be there, recording it all.

The best part of the show has been its spotlight on the reputation of Canadian restorers. When The Guild worked on its first Bugatti, Grainger got a call from England; the caller, snarkily wanted to know if he'd be building the car from Maple wood. Now, he says, Restoration Garage is "pushing the prominence of the shop and Canadian ability. I'm really proud of that."

The Guild of Automotive Restorers is located at 44 Bridge St. in Bradford, and has a showroom that is open to the public - or watch the team work in Restoration Garage, Mondays at 9 p.m. ET/PT on History Television.
